

In the event that a question or concern is not addressed below, please direct an email to Info@DeSotoISD.org.
The following information may support any nuclear information related to recent staffing decisions.

<http://www.desotoisd.org/cms/One.aspx?PortalID=165774&PageID=819212>
*Comprehensive information is available on the Superintendent's Page on the District website at <http://www.desotoisd.org/cms/One.aspx?PortalID=165774&PageID=819212>. vacancies in the district as they are posted.
Those recommended for non-renewal will have the opportunity to re-apply for other Board of Trustees.
April 22 as recommendations for 2019-2020 employment contracts are taken to the and information regarding reassignments and non-renewals should occur on or about April 18 Teachers and staff members should receive an initial notification on or about April 18 he or she will be extended a contract offer and position.
Every teacher and staff person in the district will undergo a review to determine whether district leadership will adhere to policy when re-assigning staff with consideration for staffing changes will impact both instructional and non-instructional staff; addition, the district will consider evaluations. As based on DFB Local Policy, the teacher and staff member certification, specific training, skills and qualifications. In district leadership will adhere to policy when re-assigning staff with consideration for and district need.

changes in the district. The reassessments will be based on teacher and staff performance reassignment of members of the workforce as based on the aforementioned programmatic district leadership. The districtwide decrease in staff will require the identified and The impact will be based on areas decided by the Board of Trustees as presented by district's workforce at both the central staff and campus level. we educate students and serve families. Part of that effort will include streamlining the

The district's current financial state will require difficult decisions that will impact how

DeSoto ISD has received a number of questions and concerns related to recent staffing changes.